

Download Melinda Camber Porter In Conversation With Roy Lichtenstein

The conversation between Roy Lichtenstein (1923-1997) and Melinda Camber Porter (1953-2008) took place on December 18, 1983, when Roy Lichtenstein's Greene Street Mural drew crowds to Leo Castelli's landmark SoHo Greene Street Gallery in downtown New York. Roy Lichtenstein describes to Melinda Camber Porter the many influences on his art from the Renaissance painters to Japanese art in terms of his brush strokes, perspective, and styles. Melinda Camber Porter in Conversation with Roy Lichtenstein New York Green Street Mural 1983, Vol 1, No 2 Video cannot be played. Please upgrade to a modern browser. The conversation between Roy Lichtenstein and Melinda Camber Porter took place on December 18, 1983, when Lichtenstein's Greene Street Mural drew crowds to Leo Castelli's landmark SoHo Greene Street Gallery in downtown New York. Melinda Camber Porter In Conversation With Roy Lichtenstein: New York Green Street Mural 1983, Vol 1, No 2 eBook: Roy Lichtenstein, Melinda Camber Porter, Joseph Robert Flicek: Amazon.co.uk: Kindle Store, Melinda Camber Porter In Conversation With Roy Lichtenstein.

Other Files :