In folk music, a tune is a short instrumental piece, a melody, often with repeating sections, and usually played a number of times. A collection of tunes with structural similarities is known as a tune-family. Maurice Abrahams was born in Russia in 1883 and died in NYC in 1931. He was a popular composer and lyricist, writing a number of popular songs including some we have featured in past issues such as The Pullman Porters On Parade in our February, 2000 issue about the artist E.H. Pfeiffer. *Doctor Faustus (wind ensemble; composed in 1936). Christopher Marlowe's The Tragical History of Dr. Faustus, was presented on January 8, 1937 at the Maxine Elliott's Theatre, New York City, and was directed by Orson Welles. Musicians tend to have a particular image in mind when they play and that means some of the most famous songs of all time were, in fact, inspired by real people., Songs Composed By Barbara M. Drew.
