4. Child Development and Early Learning. The domains of child development and early learning are discussed in different terms and categorized in different ways in the various fields and disciplines that are involved in research, practice, and policy related to children from birth through age 8. Page 208. 6 Consequences of Child Abuse and Neglect. The consequences of maltreatment can be devastating. For over 30 years, clinicians have described the effects of child abuse and neglect on the physical, psychological, cognitive, and behavioral development of children. The particular focus of How Children Succeed was the role that a group of factors often referred to as noncognitive or “soft” skills — qualities like perseverance, conscientiousness, self-control, and optimism — play in the challenges poor children face and the strategies that might help them succeed., Child Emotional Security And Interparental Conflict Monographs Of The Society.
