Dr. Clare Middle - Veterinary Natural Therapies . I am a veterinarian, and I work from a private consulting room at Bibra Lake in Perth, Western Australia using normal conventional veterinary diagnosis and treatment advice if needed, but primarily I use the following natural therapy modalities:As raw food has become more popular with dog lovers so, too, has demand for hard evidence as to its safety and efficacy. Veterinary professionals, in particular, seek reassurance. This reminds me of a SNL skit about naming a snack food N*gg*r. What ever fanciful reclamation may be imagined, the fact remains that b*tch is a slur referring to Woman. Dog meat is the flesh and other edible parts derived from dogs. Historically, human consumption of dog meat has been recorded in many parts of the world. In the 21st century, dog meat is consumed in some regions of China, South Korea, Vietnam, and Nigeria and it is still eaten or is legal to be eaten in other countries throughout the world., Real Food Dogs Clare Middle.
