It's been fifteen years since I wrote When I Don't Desire God: How to Fight for Joy. I wrote it because hundreds of people who hear the message of Christian Hedonism with hope drift into discouragement because they don't have the joy in God that they know they should. Editor's Note: This message, which appears below as a lightly edited transcript, is the first part of a series of six messages based on the book When I Don't Desire God. I Believe, Help My Unbelief. That's what the man with the demonized boy prayed in Mark 9:24. And that's what I'm praying this morning. Here's my problem: I'm dealing with some fears that show I am loving fame and money more than Christ. 33000+ free ebooks online ...
